Mark Lawson began work with Knight Frank LLP in early 1994 where he focused on the sale of the finest residential properties throughout England. Since 2002 Mark has been solely acting for purchasers. He now oversees the running of the Home Counties and the Country Estates teams providing the best possible service to his clients.

Working closely with the other members of the Home Counties team, Mark ensures no opportunity is overlooked, often purchasing property that is not available on the open market. The Home Counties is a highly sought after area due to its access to the capital, international airports and outstanding schools. It is a fast moving market with many of the best properties selling quickly and privately.

Mark's experience and close working relationships with selling agents and property contacts enables him and his team to provide a highly professional and focused search service. This gives his clients the best opportunity to purchase in this highly competitive and fast moving field.
