Angus heads up Knight Frank's Country House Consultancy team, working closely with The Buying Solution to ensure that the process of handover is as smooth and seamless as possible. Angus has managed houses and estates for over 15 years and his knowledge and insight into what it takes to run and enjoy a country house is unrivalled.

Angus visits the seller and compiles a simple but comprehensive manual detailing all the important facts needed to prepare for completion and beyond. This includes how things work, who the suppliers are and other practical information. Utility and Council Tax accounts are changed over as part of the service. Angus then remains on hand for any future help and advice.
