High Value Residential
& Rural Estates (UK)

Mark has specialised in the prime country market since 1994, dealing with the sale and purchase of some of the finest country houses and estates in England. Mark, who lives in Marlborough with his family, has an in-depth understanding of the countryside and a unique knowledge of the most exclusive residential markets across the UK.

Mark is an expert in his field and has over 20 years' experience in dealing with some of the most expensive and complex properties throughout the UK. As TBS's dedicated estates buyer, he can provide his clients with a highly specialised service unrestricted by geographical boundaries. No other single consultant has such a comprehensive knowledge and insight of this exclusive market or access to its properties, many of which are offered privately to Mark and are therefore not available on the open market.

Mark has acted for significantly more estate buyers than any other buying agent in the UK and with this experience and his close working relationship with the TBS country team, he is able to provide a highly professional and focused search service, providing his clients with the best opportunity to purchase in this complex and highly competitive market.
