Jemma has specialised in international relocation and home search since 2003. Before joining TBS, Jemma worked for Knight Frank for 12 years, creating and running the Residential Corporate Services team, having previously worked for another international agent in Kensington and Knightsbridge.

With a unique skill-set offering both purchase and rental search, Jemma has worked closely with private families and HNWI's, as well as senior executives for some of the biggest global brands relocating into London & the Home Counties. All very personal and unique searches benefitting from her expert guidance through the time-consuming and often confusing formalities associated with rental or purchase.

Jemma has impeccable agency contacts, is passionate about property and relishes a challenge; whether it be securing a secluded bolthole in the best villages of Oxfordshire, seeking out a family home close to the top schools in Buckinghamshire or navigating the prestigious private estates of Surrey and Berkshire.

A converted city girl, Jemma now lives with her family in the Chilterns and is a keen enthusiast of the unique and varied lifestyle that the Home Counties offers.
